This is the first part of a two part series that will demonstrate that the Coronavirus is much, much worse than the administration is letting on. However, and as this series will reveal, the assault upon America by this bioweapon is not the final assault. Except for those who will die or lose loved ones from the virus, the Coronavirus is not the main threat to America. The main danger is what will follow one second following the dissipation of the Coronavirus.

As will be revealed, the Coronavirus is actually a transitional weapon designed to usher in ultimate civil war and the takedown of America. Euphemistically, one second after the Coronavirus has dissipated, the civil war for the control of America will commence and this conflict will include the use of foreign troops against American citizens as practiced in Jade Helm 16 as prescribed in the drills

Reassessing the Coronavirus Danger

It is instructive for the American public and military to realize that what is happening with the Coronavirus was and is predictable. It is decidedly a bioweapon and we had all the information we needed to arrive at that conclusion. It is becoming increasingly clear that the Coronavirus, a decided bioweapon, has been designed to re-infect its victims with the second infection more deadlier than the previous. This will constitute the weakening of American fighting forces and an accompanying economic collapse which is already underway.

I find myself in complete agreement with Mike Adams assessment that the government's decision to not test asymptomatic person is a way to keep the reported infection rates artificially low. As Mike Adams reported, one expert estimates that as many as 500,000 Americans may have already contracted the virus.

One cannot fully understand the threat to America unless we take a step back to January when I reported that this entire Coronavirus scenario was rehearsed during Jade Helm 16.

Unfortunately for humanity, this virus(es) is following an old script that was actually practiced during the Obama-era, Jade Helm 16 drills, in which a mock bioagent was introduced to the war games to simulate a bioweapon attack upon the people. Further, the re-infection of swine to human, back to swine, back to human, is telling and I am surprised that more investigative journalists have not seized upon the nature of the of the virus in the order to extrapolate the designed intention of the introduction of the virus. This is the gift that keeps on giving. The main takeaway is the that the virus will not "burn out" for quite sometime and this will be accompanied by some very predictable effects. Based on existing information, that America is under full attack by this bioweapon dubbed, the Coronavirus.

The economy is approaching free-fall, our resource reserves are severely depleted through panicked hording and the supply-chain-chaos will reach its peak by mid-April and if people are not fully prepped in advance of this time frame, they never will be. The death rate will spike in mere weeks, most of the carnage will be due to the unprepared nature of the American public. These unprepared people should be considered to become your enemy in the near future. If they are breaking out into fist fights over toilet paper, what will happen when these procrastinators cannot get food in a month, or two?

The question being asked by our government centers around the question of why would we see these multiple mutations and why would this designer virus mutate so it could begin to re-infect swine? Initially, this made no sense to me either until it was pointed out to me that the viral invasion of the United States would center in large urban areas and most rural areas would be relatively unaffected as long as people began to self-quarantine. Then the light came on. This last mutation is designed to attack rural areas as well. However, there is another purpose as well. The last mutation will generalize to other animal populations and create food shortages. This was a conclusion that myself and few other people in late January of 2020. This is a key to understanding where this crisis is headed because the killing of the food supply would provide the Deep State with some decided advantages:

1. It would eliminate a guerrilla army, acting in opposition to any force that would overthrow the country, to limit the food supply of any patriot guerrilla army. This was actually practiced in Jade Helm 16 with crisis actors. And it is becoming increasingly clear that this is what is coming one second after the dissipation of the Coronavirus. To use a military metaphor, this virus is the aerial bombardment before the literal ground assault that has been planned and is certainly coming.
2. As was stated on the CSS nearly two months ago, the generalization of specific animal deaths to other animal populations, makes a great deal of sense when this strategy is applied to starving the masses as the virus dissipates. There is strong historical precedent for this assertion because when Mao took over China, he collected all the guns and forbade the people from raising and hunting their own food. Instead, Mao wanted the Chinese people to depend on the weekly government shipments of food to the people so that they could better be controlled. There is evidence that that this is happening here.

On January 13, Paul Martin and myself did an interview where we identified a virulent pathogen that were killing deer, elk and moose. Please allow me to point out that the United Nations troops will be part of any medical martial FEMA camps operating under EFS#8 which combines the oversight for these camps among HHS and the UN. For a foreign takeover to be maximally effective, the food supply must be controlled and this would lessen American troop resistance (ie American guerilla forces) against the planned foreign troop assault upon the American people led by the United Nations. For a guerrilla army, the loss of the indigenous and natural food supply would be devastating. Further, it would allow a group of Bolsheviks, who just overthrew the United States, to control the people by turning food into a weapon.

Previously I received multiple reports that we are going to get hit with the Pneumonic Plague and Ebola. Certainly, this would help to explain why It is obvious to myself that the Chinese have been preparing to release these outbreaks since November of 2019. In November, the NY Times reported that the Pneumonic Plague Is Diagnosed in China. Two cases of the fatal and highly infectious illness, which is related to bubonic plague, were found in Beijing, prompting fears of an outbreak.

I have also learned that a third virus has been introduced into the United States and it is the Coronavirus as advertised. My source feels this is a cover to distract and confuse pathologists as to what they are truly dealing with until it is too late.

This is a smoking gun revelation. But wait, there is much, much more that should tell America that the Coronavirus is only the first step in the planned subjugation of America.

During Jade Helm 16, a Lt. General contacted me by regular email and we proceeded to have several conversations by phone. He said he was impressed by the way that I had handled the Benghazi story as well the Jade Helm report as it pertained to putting down an American insurrection against an occupying force. At that time, he felt that there was some missing information that he wanted to me to have

This same source contacted me a couple of months ago and we have put together and update. First, here is what he told me back in 2016. The Lt. General's information is important and time sensitive. With his identity validated and confirmed, this is his message about the present national crisis and crisis connected to Jade Helm. The following is highly informative if one is pursuing the course of investigation that following the Coronavirus that the United States will be under extreme attack and that the virus is merely a softening up process which still will be highly lethal.

Previous Revelations From a Lt. General

In 2012, this Lt. General was part of a Pentagon study which studied how many military personnel would side with the government and how many could be counted upon to fire upon American citizens when ordered to do so. The 2012 Pentagon study reached the following conclusions:

1. Approximately 60% of active duty Army personnel will side with the American people.
2. Eighty percent of the National Guard will not fire upon American citizens, when as the Lt. General said, "(not if) but when the order is given to openly enslave the American people under Martial Law".
3. Somewhere around 90% the Marines will side with the American people.
4. The Navy as a whole will stay out of the fight choosing to be the last line of defense against foreign intervention should the country fall into civil war. (Editor's Note: Please refer to my previous reference to the fact that the Navy has engaged in five years of war games in order to keep most of its ships out to sea).
5. It is widely believed that in excess of 75% of the Air Force will side with the establishment,

The Lt. General also identified three emerging sides to this conflict: (1) Those that will support the establishment; (2) Those that will oppose the establishment; and, (3) Those who will not take sides but instead will choose to protect civilians, presumably friends and family.

The Establishment's Need for Foreign Troops

In his email to me, the Lt. General stated the following with regard to Russian troops on American soil:

> "There are many within the active military both officers and senior NCO's who see what is happening and what is coming. Many more than you can possibly imagine will not follow an unconstitutional order to move against the American people, nor will they allow foreign troops to openly attack American citizens. This would be the start of a fight these foreign forces could not possibly win as we will be fighting for our families, home, country and freedom. The Russian forces currently on American soil have no stomach for a fight with the American people. I know because I speak fluent Russian and I have met them and many of their officers, when push comes to shove they will stand down and go home. I have met President Putin and I found him to be a Nationalist, the man believes in Russia and while he is interested in expanding Russian influence and power it is because of the threat he sees from America, England and NATO not because he has designs on taking over America".

My present takeaway from the previous revelation has changed. The Russians may or may not backdown, however, the Chinese and the embedded paramilitary groups already on American soil will not back down.

The Nature and Course of the Coming Civil War

During the course of the email, the Lt. General briefly summarized what he anticipated would be coming as a result of major portions of the U.S. military refusing to participate in the subjugation of the American people by force. In the email he offered the following: "With modern antiaircraft systems (mobile and man portable) air power will be all but useless. What we will see is a ground war, city by city, street by street. Additionally what is coming will be unlike any civil war in history, it will be very personal, the government will call the Patriots forces terrorists and traitors, they will arrest, intern, torture and murder suspected terrorists families, this will result in bloody reprisals which will start a vicious cycle lasting for years".

Interestingly, I was able to confirm the previous content of the message by other sources that participated in Jade Helm 16. Some of the drills contained mock executions in an effort to obtain intelligence information from captured ex-US soldiers who were now "guerrilla chieftains" against the occupying force.

Update From Original Source

I have periodically received updates from this source, but in the past several months, the information turned very ominous. Here are excerpts of two communications I have received in that time.

> Mr. Hodges
> The United Nations has made China their new darling and have pushed Russia to the background. This is why Putin has repeatedly reached out to Trump in an effort to foster relations.....
>
> I am acquainted with leadership from three American bases. They include the old SAC and reconstituted "purple" commands. They are all intimately aware of how their air traffic is targeted by covert Chinese military forces on BLM land courtesy of Obama and Clinton...Under Obama, they were under "stand-down". That is no longer the case.... Chinese operatives have been taken into custody and intel extracted by local military with no allegiance to outside controls.
>
> I do not like your Tet Offensive analogy used to describe what is coming in its entirety. The analogy quickly breaks down. However, you captured the operational goal of these covert forces. When mass terror is unleashed, we now have intel which states that these forces have been trained to attack bases like Nellis and Luke and many others. Taking out command and control is the objective and the action is hidden within the domestic insurrection that we believe is planned.
>
> Previously, I told you that the upcoming fighting would include local street fighting which will include house-to-house....Americans must never give up their guns. Stocking up on ammo is more important than acquiring more guns. My sources have learned that inflicting maximum civilian casualties is a primary goal of hostiles. Everyone will be a frontline participant and demographics will not be a consideration for any quarter given. In other words there will be no such entity as a noncombatant.....
>
> The coming conflicts are tied to political events. Many of my sources believe that a failed impeachment could trigger the beginning of widespread violence designed to spread...
>
> At this time, I can no longer stand behind the loyalty figures I presented to you from the previous Pentagon study. Leadership has changed so dramatically and then there is also the Trump alienation factor. I can accurately state that there will be division within our ranks and violent conflict is likely as well as engagement from foreign powers.....
>
> ... People will always ask when. A short and curt answer would accurately state "when they turn the lights out on your neighborhood." Foreign entities armed with night vision will go from house-to-house killing everything in sight in the middle of the night. I know from JH 16 that preselected neighborhoods have already been selected.....Bastrop was a case in point....

The Bastrop reference harkens back to Jade Helm 16. In other words, what this General is saying is that this the scenario we are living through has already been rehearsed in Jade Helm 16.

After the Coronavirus runs its course, we can fully expect that the fight for the control of America will be on. This is indeed a predictable path to Civil War.

Conclusion

The important thing to remember is that the Coronavirus will disappear from the American landscape, however, the end goal of the takeover of America does not begin and end with the virus, but the virus will stay in play in the future of the conflict.

The main impact of the Coronavirus, at least initially, will be economic. However, the implementation of medical martial law camps, full discussed by Celeste Solom and myself, dating back to October of 2014, demonstrates that before the military subjugation (ie civil war) will commence, civilian detention camps, masquerading as medical martial quarantine camps, must be introduced because oppositional leadership must be eliminated. Civilian opposition to the New World Order must also be removed. The civilian population, as a whole, must also be significantly reduced. The loyalist military must be infected and weakened. And now, I am in possession of information that clearly demonstrates that the transition between the Coronavirus and the planned takedown of the United States is underway. In other words, Jade Helm 16 has been activated in Texas.

Since the outset of the crisis, and based on what is already known, it is important to know that the activation of medical martial law camps is a necessary precursor of what is coming on the path to civil war.

Medical martial law camps will soon be open for business as I am in possession pf information from a highly reliable inside source that describes the present staffing of these facilities is already underway and this is the topic of Part Two of this series.

Well, when the judgment of God hits, it hits, doesn't it! Our poor country is at its end, and it doesn't look like repentance is forseeable in the near future.

I didn't want to see all the dots connected in this manner... but WOW! And they still slumber. Can not even get family to do a damn thing. The "churches" slumber and are complicit in this genocide. Looking forward to posting this and part 2 far and wide. They were warned....

"the Coronavirus is much, much worse than the administration is letting on" Dave please don't fall for the MSM hype and propaganda about coronavirus. You're too smart for that. The coronavirus is no worse than the common flu and there are few deaths in the US from it. I bet a big Seattle hospital and there have been no deaths from coronavirus. People are not getting the virus left and right as they say we are or will. Don't fall for it. What is it,is the planned destruction of the economies of many Western nations including the US. We are heading towards a NWO and a crypto currency. That's what this false flag event is all about.

Good evening Dave, Interesting article...it sure doesn't leave many options for the common man for sure. I have a few questions regarding the activation of JH16 in Texas. When did the activation occur? Who activated it? What do I need to be on the look out for if this is so? I mean I am going to work tomorrow, what would be a clue that JH16 is on in Texas? I want to make sure my wife and I can get home to each other before the SHTF. Thank you so much for all your work! Craig

..it's the flu...In panic mode, congenital liberals are literally destroying America because of their hatred for Trump. There may be 60 dead because of corona flu? Sad.... 11,600 plus people died from the swine flu. Of that number, 1,180 children died under Obama. Liberals did nothing. Sports were played. There were no runs on toilet paper. Congenital liberals hatred is astounding!....and these insane people want my firearms?...and they want the borders left open?.....is it any wonder the Pilgrims left Europe to get away from these types of bullies?

There isn't a real-or-contrived crisis that the NWO crowd won't exploit with evil glee, imo. Re "it's just the flu"... Please check out Mike Adams et al re the science. www.pandemic.com; https://healthrangerreport.com...The infectious disease specialist doc from Minnesota had Tucker Carlson looking very solemn (hardly ever watch Fox anymore) re the man's vehement denial of what the talking heads are spouting. Asked him to come back after stating that if he would have known what was going to be said, he would have given him more time. As if re globalist-owned Fox.
